

Weavers Academy Attendance Team - Managing situations

Look at the following situations that you may find yourself in at school. How should you deal with the following situations?

If you don't know what lesson you have

Two empty green rounded rectangular boxes for writing an answer to the situation: "If you don't know what lesson you have".

If you are worried about where to meet your friends

Two empty green rounded rectangular boxes for writing an answer to the situation: "If you are worried about where to meet your friends".

If you are worried you've missed lots of work

Two empty green rounded rectangular boxes for writing an answer to the situation: "If you are worried you've missed lots of work".

If your friend tells you others were talking about you

Two empty green rounded rectangular boxes for writing an answer to the situation: "If your friend tells you others were talking about you".

If somebody has said something upsetting to you

Two empty green rounded rectangular boxes for writing an answer to the situation: "If somebody has said something upsetting to you".

The work you've been asked to do is too hard

Two empty green rounded rectangular boxes for writing an answer to the situation: "The work you've been asked to do is too hard".